

During his last visit to India, Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be allowed to interfere between the relationship between India and Afghanistan.

during his last visit to India, president Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be let into the relations between India and Afghanistan.

During his last tour of India President Hamid Karzai said that extremism will not be allowed to hinder the relations of the two countries.

in his first visit of india the president hamid karzai said that we wont let terrorism to be a problem in relations between afghanistan and india to be

During his last visit to India, President Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be allowed to interfere with the relations between India and Afghanistan.

During his last visit to India, Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be allowed to interfere with the relationship between India and Afghanistan.

During his last visit to India, Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be allowed to interfere with the relationship between India and Afghanistan.

During his last visit to India, president Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be interfere with the relations between India and Afghanistan.

During his last visit to India, president Hamid Karzai said that terrorism will not be let into the relations between India and Afghanistan.

During his last visit to India, Hamid Karzai said terrorism will not interfere with the relationship between India and Afghanistan.

During his last tour of India, President Hamid Karzai said that extremism will not be allowed to hinder the relations of the two countries.

In his first visit toIndia, President Hamid Karzai said that he won't let terrorism be a problem in relations between Afghanistan and India.

In his first visit of India president hamid karzai said that we wont let terrorism be a problem in relations between Afghanistan and India.

In his first visit to India the president, Hamid Karzai said, "We won't let terrorism be a problem in relations between Afghanistan and India."